PNP ACQUIRES 72 MORE PATROL VEHICLES

The Philippine national Police has added 72 more vehicles to its mobile patrol fleet.

The 72 brand new Anfra 4x2 utility vehicles were formally distributed to Chiefs of Police and Municipal Mayors by DILG Undersecretary Rafaelito Garayblas, and PNP Office - in-Charge, Deputy Director General Jewel Canson during simple ceremonies in Camp Crame.

The recipient Police Stations belong to 3rd, 4th and 5th class municipalities around the country.

According to PNP Director for Logistics, Director Jaime dela Cruz, the acquisition of the 72 police patrol vehicles was part of the PNP's procurement program aimed at improving the mobile capability of police line units.

The Anfra patrol vehicle is powered by a 95-horsepower 1800cc gasoline engine. It comes equipped with the standard police siren, PA system, and blinkers.
