PNB – DILG SCHOLARSHIP GRANT

The Philippine National Bank Foundation Inc. in cooperation with the Department of the Interior and Local Government is now accepting applications for the PNB-DILG Scholarship Grant for school year 2001-2002.

The PNB-DILG Scholarship program is open to Police Non-Commissioned Officers (PNCOs) and their dependent children.

The program offers full high school and college scholarships to qualified children of PNP non-commissioned officers.

Police Non-Commissioned Officers without college degrees may also avail of the full college scholarship grant offered by the PNB.

According to Director Hermogenes Ebdane Jr., PNP Director for Human Resource and Doctrine Development (DHRDD), applicants for the high school and college scholarship programs for PNP dependents must be legitimate children of policemen in the active service holding permanent position below the rank of Inspector.

Applicants for both programs must pass the NEAT or NSAT qualifying examinations, the admission test of the school where they intend to enroll, and the qualifying examinations to be conducted by the PNP Foundation Scholarship Committee.

Students applicants for high school and college scholarship must have a general average of at least 80%.

Policemen applying for the college scholarship program must not be more than 40 years old, physically fit, must have no pending administrative case, and with a satisfactory performance rating for the last two years.

Application forms are available at any PNB Branch nationwide or from the DHRDD Scholarship Officer in Camp Crame.

Qualifying examinations will be held in selected PNP Branches in different regions starting October 21, 2000.

The PNB Financial Center in Roxas Boulevard, Pasay City will accept applications from all regions until December 8, 2000 for the December 16 examinations.

Other PNP branches will observe the following schedule:
