PNP Chief Director General Hermogenes E Ebdane Jr ordered the immediate filing of charges against two (2) persons arrested in buy-bust operations last night, August 6, 2002, one of whom has the same surname as the PNP Chief and hails from the same town.

The suspects in custody were identified as GODOFREDO SIOCHI y Roque, 39 years old, businessman, native of Caloocan City, residing at Qurino Hi-way, Quezon City, and OLIVER RENATO EBDANE y Edano, 40 years old, single, native of Candelaria, Zambales, residing at West Avenue, Quezon City.

During joint operations involving elements of the newly created Philippine Drug Enforcement Agency (PDEA) and Metro Manila Drug Enforcement Group (MMDEG), the two suspects were apprehended with an undetermined amount of methamphetamine hydrochloride or shabu and several pieces of different caliber firearms, magazines and ammunitions. Charges of violation of RA 9165 Comprehensive Dangerous Drugs Act of 2002 are now being prepared.

In addition, a police officer made another arrest at the domestic airport at 4:50am this morning. The suspect, MRS ADANG ADJASANI, 44 years old, was found with 140 gms of shabu with a street value of Php 280,000.00. Adjasani is currently detained at the PNP-Aviation Security Group in Domestic Airport, Pasay City.
