CENTRAL LUZON WINS 1ST CHIEF PNP CUP

Central Luzon-Team 2 emerged top squad in the just concluded 1st CPNP Cup Shooting Competition at the Armscor Range in Marikina City.

Chief Inspector Alex Sintin, skipper of the champion team, also clinched the top overall position with 753.48 points, outgunning 291 other shooters including fellow team members Senior Inspector Eduardo Tuason, Superintendent Arnold Gunnacao and SPO2 Petronilo Dupitas.

Command Group-Team 1 of PNP Chief, Director General Hermogenes E Ebdane Jr., Sr. Supt. Tony Baraquiel,, CInsp. Sheldon Jacaban, and SPO3 Jonathan Dela Cruz grabbed 1st Runner-up honors in the team event with 2291.36 points.

Southern Mindanao-Team 2 landed in third position with Chief Inspectors Michael Dubria and Ronald Dela Rosa leading the squad.

The rest of the top 10 team finishers are Calabarzon-Team 2, Cental Visayas, Cordillera, Intelligence Group, Calabarzon-Team 1, Northern Mindanao, and Southern Police District.

In the individual event, Sintin edged runners-up Senior Superintendent Benjie Belarmino, Chief Inspector Julius Lagiwid, and Senior Superintendent Tony Baraquiel for the championship crown.

The other individual Top Ten finishers are: CInsp. Raymundo Calano, Sr. Insp. Eduardo Tuason, SPO4 Carlos Antiligando, CInsp. Michael Dubria, SPO3 Jonathan Dela Cruz, and Supt. Nicolas Pasinos of NCRPO settled for 3rd Place among the police generals.

The three-day, ten-course shooting competition was sanctioned by the International Defensive Pistol Association (IDPA).

According to shootfest organizer, Director Avelino Razon Jr., the tournament aims to test the firearms proficiency of PNP personnel starting with the top officials and unit directors.

In the team events, Regional and Unit Directors were required to lead their individual teams in the competition, Razon said.

He said, similar shooting competitions among local PNP Units and personnel will be held in each of the 17 PNP Regional Offices in the country.

Basic firearms handling and marksmanship are centerpiece of instructional activities for police personnel under the ONE PNP program on education and training, Razon said.
