REORGANIZATION COMPLETED, OFFICIALS ASSUME NEW POSTS

The latest round of reorganization of police officers occupying key positions in the Philippine National Police has been fully implemented.

At the Police Regional Office - Calabarzon in Laguna this morning, Chief Superintendent Reynaldo P Varilla formally assumed command as Regional Director of PRO-4A, replacing Chief Superintendent Jaime G. Caringal.

PNP Chief of Directorial Staff, Police Director Enrique B Galang Jr. officiated the formal turnover rites.

According to PNP Spokesman, Senior Superintendent Joel R Goltiao, the formal assumption of Varilla to the top PNP regional post was the culmination of the series of turnover and assumption of command formalities in the latest reorganization in the Command Group, Directorial Staff, and Regional Police Offices of the PNP.

Earlier during the week, Chief Superintendent Antonio Billones formally assumed as Regional Director of PRO-12 in Central Mindanao. Chief Superintendent Servando Hizon, meantime, took over the helm of PRO-9 in Western Mindanao.

Elsewhere in the regions, Police Director Rolando Garcia assumed as Regional Director of PRO-7 for Central Visayas, while Chief Superintendent George L. Aliño is now the new Regional Director of PRO-6 for Western Visayas.

In Metro Manila, Police Director Ricardo F De Leon is the new Regional Director of National Capital Region Police Office (NCRPO), with Chief Superintendent Jaime G Caringal as his Deputy Regional Director for Operations.

Chief Superintendent Prospero Noble was designated District Director of Southern Police District, while Chief Superintendent Oscar Valenzuela is the new Eastern Police District Director.
